Look to this day

for it is life

*the very life
of life*

In its brief course

lie all the realities

and truths of existence

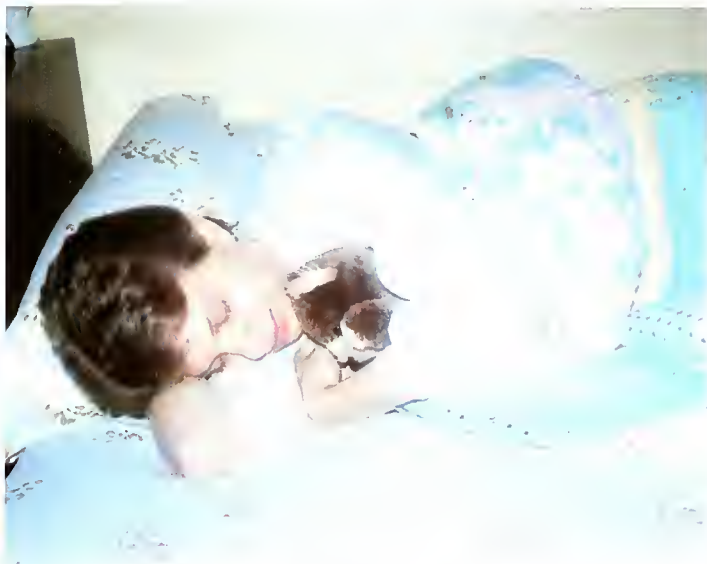

the joy of growth

the splendor of action

the glory of power

*For Yesterday
is but a memory
And tomorrow
is only a vision*

But today we'll live

makes every yesterday a memory of happiness

*and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.*

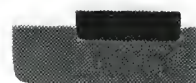

We know it's all a passing phase
We light our lamps for atmosphere
And hang our hopes on chandeliers We're going wrong, we're gaining We're sleeping long and far too long
And so it's time to change our ways
But I've loved these days

— Billy Joel

Farewell to Sample

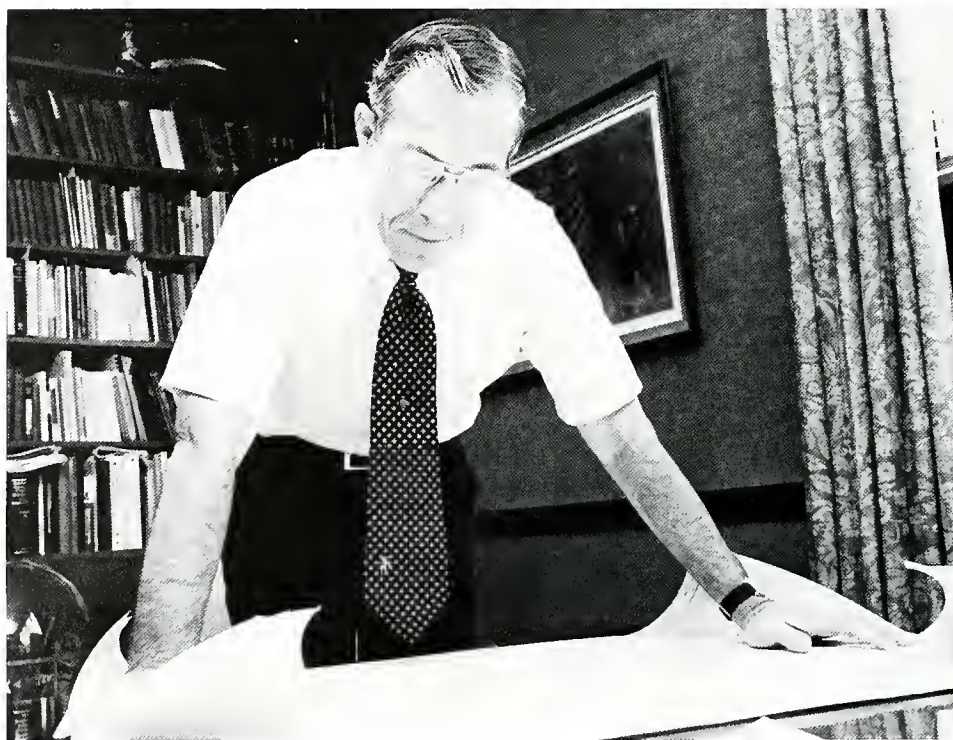

President Frederick Sample, a 1952 LVC graduate, began his tenure as Lebanon Valley College's thirteenth president in September 1968. Under his guidance, the College has undergone many changes in the fifteen year interval.

Among the many achievements Sample feels are most noteworthy are:

- developing and improving the educational facilities and opportunities at the College
- strengthening the powers and diversity of the faculty
- overseeing a capital campaign to raise $10 million.

Physical improvements to the campus during Sample's tenure have been impressive. The first improvement was the Allan W. Mund College Center, built in 1970. Silver Hall was added to the list of women's dormitories in 1974. Then, in 1975, after 15 years of planning and fund raising, Blair Music Center, designed as one of the East's largest and most modern centers dedicated exclusively to music education and performance was opened.

On February 20, 1983, the College dedicated the $4.8 million Garber Science Center, the first LVC building that houses all of the natural science departments. The modern facility's sophisticated equipment makes the academic offerings at LVC distinctive.

With these accomplishments a verification of his effective leadership, Sample stepped down, leaving with fond memories and our wish for luck in the future.

Alma Mater

To thee dear Alma Mater,
This ringing song we raise,
A song that's fraught with gladness,
A song that's fraught with praise.
We cannot help but love Thee,
Our hearts are full and free,
Full well we know the debt we owe,
To dear old L.V.C.

When asked what the Class of '85 Officers hoped to achieve and their purpose, they responded: "We have very diverse backgrounds and we work together to culminate the various personalities of our class. We try to unite the class with dinners, sales projects and other events. Our focus is on our senior year . . . (and) activities to get the Class of '85 involved with each other." This is the purpose of class officers.

Music Educators National Conference

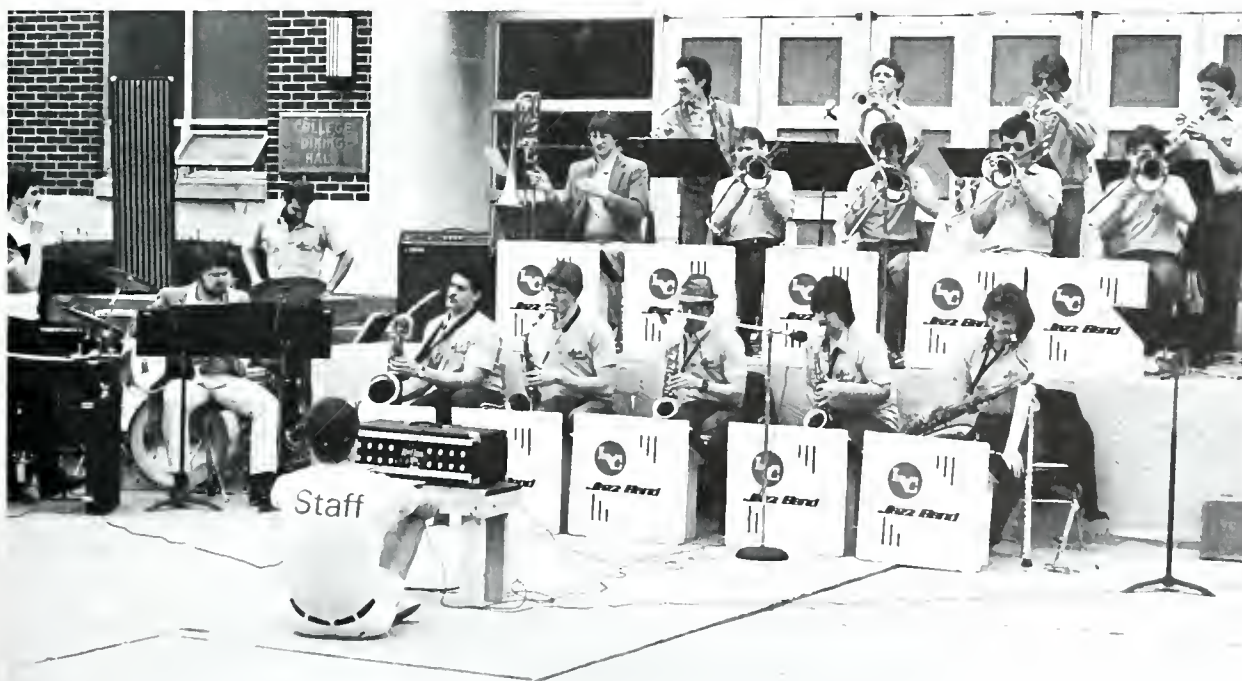

The LVC Jazz Band

and the "Put It Right Here!" Tour

The 1984 LVC Jazz Band, under the direction of Gregg Klinger, enjoyed a very active year. In October, they presented the fifth annual 30's — 40's Nostalgia Dance. Memorable tunes from the big band era were performed in a Hershey Ballroom setting.

In January, the band went on tour with performances in Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Maryland. Despite having to contend with snowy weather, the band was greeted by enthusiastic audiences wherever it went.

The highlight of the year was the February Campus Concert. This year's guest soloist was Tommy Newsom of the Tonight Show. While this was a huge undertaking, it was all worth while as the concert was a great success.

Technical Assistant: Dean Sauder. Director: Gregg Klinger. Rhythm Section: David Baldwin, Vicki Frey, Leroy Whitehead. Sax Section: Joe "Zep" Ruocco, Scott Lefurge, David "Doc" Carter, Pat Tratnack, Darla Dixon. Trombone Section: Tim Wolf, Clay Satzahn, Dale Groome, Mike May, Tom Owsinski. Trumpet Section: Jon Heisey, Rob Reynolds, Mark Whitmer, Chris Enck.

FROM THE EDITOR

Before I came to the Valley, the arrival of my year-book was synonymous with the end of a year, finals and the last time to realize who was a senior before graduation. Now, however, as the schedule forces the presentation of the book in the fall, it has taken on a new meaning. For me, and other returning students, it is a reminder of the immaturity that we now realize was present in our actions and thoughts of the preceding year. In addition it painfully makes us aware that everyone who left for the summer did not return.

Seniors, of this book, have graduated and continued on on to the working world or further education. At the time of delivery it causes a contemplation of the approximately four years spent here. For some satisfaction is felt knowing that it was time and money well spent, not only because of the excellent education provided, but the friendships established between students and faculty alike. Some may find the viewing not as pleasant, realizing that now after it is gone, they did not know what was there. This is a common affliction with many people of today's world.

It is for this reason that I must now express my appreciation to some very special people: Dawn Humphrey, my advisor with an understanding of the delicate workings of this campus; Ed Patrick, Taylor Publishing representative and possessor of a wealth of knowledge and ideas; George Foose and Paula Walters of TPA, excellent photographers with a great sense of humor and a love of vanilla shakes; and my great staff, which includes many personalities.

This last year has given me many wonderful memories as well as a few scares - from new friends to the LCB's bust of the Hooker's Ball. It is a time which has passed, to be remembered but not to be lived in.

Take Care and God Bless

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Some where ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I - I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost
